

The role of PIL in the internationalization of legal education

Sylvaine Poillot Peruzzetto
 Conseiller cour de cassation Professeure Agrégée des Universités

Legal education as the key point for evolution of the conception of law and on the law as a means to organize human relationships
 PIL a classical field to question the law itself, the role of the states, regions, parties (despite PIL's evolution towards technique)

1 PIL questions the national basis of legal education

1.1 PIL as a way to take distance with the object of legal education the basis of PIL is the recognition of the diversity in the world of the law specially in countries based on legal systems, on codification PIL is an answer to this diversity which has therefore to be recognised

1.2 PIL as a means to review the method of legal education

1.2.1 Introduction of comparison : the necessity of PIL is based on the idea that the judge who has jurisdiction or the applicable law are different in the various states

1.2.2 The method of PIL is based on a permanent doubt on the legal references of the reasoning

The question is raised at the various steps of the reasoning
 - for the main steps of the reasoning : the legal reference is the lex fori qualification public policy fraud
 super mandatory rules
 - but the legal reference may be different:
 renvoi
 foreign supermandatory rules scope of party autonomy

2 PIL emphasizes the internationalization of legal education

2.1 What is the internationalization of legal education?
 - internationalization of the object : from diversity towards unity of the object international source of PIL european source of PIL
 - internationalization of education
 .legal education which takes into account the diversity of rules, concepts, methods, principles
 . Legal education which makes something the diversity

What does PIL do with the diversity in legal education ?

2.2 PIL uses the diversity as an element of legal culture

Exchange of students, exchange of teachers

Legal methods : unification harmonization but also coordination

Exchange between practitioners and university

2.3 PIL uses the diversity as a way to produce the law

- directly : european PIL or international PIL

- indirectly : recognition, understanding of legal concepts which is a step towards unification

Conclusion

PIL as a legal method of exchange between legal systems, using technical tools, each legal system being rooted on a culture

PIL as a method of exchange which creates a culture of . Recognition of diversity

. Exchange within the diversity